COMMISSIONERS AND ENGINEER AT ODDS

County Dads Say Sweetman Failed to Handle Relief Workers

MAY SETTLE ISSUE

Deffenbaugh Attacks Burial Slash

A "show-down" was expected Monday afternoon between county commissioners and County Surveyor J. Howard Sweetman concerning the matter of employment for men receiving relief from the county, following a 'misunderstanding' Monday morning.

The commissioners, last week, ordered that jobs be provided on county highways for all men receiving relief and that the workers would be credited with $1 per day on relief orders. In this manner, the county dads pointed out, every family-head getting relief would be working for it.

As the story goes Mr. Sweetman was instructed to have jobs of some sort for the men and last Saturday, through The Herald, the commissioners instructed all men getting relief to report at the surveyors office at 7 a. m.

AWAITED TRUCKS

The commissioners reported to begin their deliberations Monday about 9 a. m. and found a crowd of 80 men waiting outside the surveyor's office. Upon investigation they learned that trucks had not been provided to convey the men to work and that nothing had been done to provide transportation. They immediately instructed the surveyor to have the necessary trucks on hand at once and to see that the men were put to work.

John W. Hay, president of the board of commissioners, said Monday that Mr. Sweetman had refused to place any men who might be injured while working on this kind of job on State Compensation. "He would have the county be responsible for expenses derived from any injuries," Mr. Hay declared.

TO SETTLE MATTER

All the commissioners, including Burr H. Rader and Ralph May besides Mr. Hay, were 'peeved' over the failure of the surveyor to have trucks on hand to transport the workers and declared that "the matter will be settled once and for all.'

Mr. Sweetman could not be reached for statement Monday.

The commissioners were assailed Monday morning by H. E. Deffenbaugh, Tarlton undertaker, for slashing the fee for burying indigent persons from $70 to $45. The undertaker said that a person cannot be buried properly for $45.

In the meantime the commissioners were confronted by numerous pleas for relief.

SIX HURT IN CONVICT RIOT

Canadian Prison Is In Uproar As Wholesale Escape Is Frustrated.

DORCHESTER, N. B., Jan. 9.—With sixty Royal Canadian Mounted police on guard, the Dorchester Maritime penitentiary was quiet today following a short, fierce outburst of rioting in which one guard and five prisoners were wounded.

The brief-lived outbreak was quelled by prison guards with revolvers before the mounted troopers, hastily summoned from outlying provincial stations, arrived at the prison.

Although authorities at the penitentiary maintained strict silence concerning the affair, it was learned the flareup was part of a long planned general riot, in which the cvonvicts planned to engineer a wholesale escape.

The plot, said to have matured for several days, was tipped off to a guard by a friendly convict.

Through the convict, prison officials learned the disorder was to start late Saturday afternoon when

"Drama Of Air" Enacted As Landing Gear Breaks

Two Flyers Circling Field Unable To Land In Safety Today.

FUEL SUPPLY SHORT

Men May Land By Sliding On Fusilage.

SCOTT FIELD, BELLEVILLE, Ill., Jan. 9.—A tense drama of the air was being enacted here today by two flyers who were circling the field unable to land their Navy biplane because of a broken landing gear.

Lieutenant Tirie and Chief Aviation Pilot Bailiey, occupants of the plane discovered their predicament, they took off today for Muskogee, Okla. When the flyers attempted to retract the landing gear after taking to the air at ten minutes to eight this morning, it was found that the chain sprocket was broken and that the gear was dangling uselessly.

Field attendants said that the plane had only enough fuel to keep it in the air for about four hours.

The flyers ,according to attendants, are expected to attempt to land wihout the aid of their gear described as a perilous undertaking.

SCHABER FIGHT TOPS SCHEDULE

Legislature To Begin Work Tuesday On Numerous State Problems.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 9.—Ohio's legislature tomorrow will be plunged into a series of spirited controversies, topped by the bitter fight over the appointment of Charles F. Schaber, Bucyrus city solicitor, to the state utilities commission.

Investigation of Schaber's qualifications for the place assigned him by Governor George White will be started at 10 a. m. by the state senate rules committee. Critics of the Governor charge that Schaber is friendly to utilities corporations .

Schaber will appear personally to defend himself against accusations expected to be pressed by newspaper publishers and Francis Durbin of Lima, son of W. W. Durbin of Kenton, former Democratic state chairman.

Governor White has promised to withdraw the appointment if the charges are proved. To hold office, Schaber must be confirmed by the senate by a majority vote.

PLAN TO ARRAIGN INDICTED, TUESDAY

Arraignment of prisoners indicted by the January Grand Jury, will be held Tuesday at 9 a. m. according to Common Pleas Judge J. W. Adkins and Prosecuting Attorney Ray W. Davis.

SCHOOL RESUMES

School was resumed here Monday after a two weeks' vacation over the holidays.

GETREU, CHILD. 6. DIES IN SCIOTO-TWP

Funeral services will be Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. in Commercial Point for Eveleyn Getreu, 6, daughter of Mrs Maxine Getreu, who died Sunday at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs Harry Birkhead. The funeral will be at the Birkhead residence.

MILLER APPOINTED

Victim of Fiend

With the finding of the murdered body of 19-year-old Rose McCloskey (above), on a gravel dump near Fairmount Park, Philadelphia, a new mystery was dumped into the laps of the police in the City of Brotherly Love. The girl's throat was slashed and her head crushed in after she had been criminally attacked. Dennis Boyle, believed to have been her companion, is in a critical condition, having been badly beaten.

BLAINE BILL IS FAVORED

Repeal While Protecting Dry States Reported By Senate Committee.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The Blaine resolution, calling for immediate repeal of the 18th amendment while protecting dry states, was favorably reported by the senate judiciary committee today.

The resolution provided for ratification by legislatures within seven years. It would repeal the 18th amendment. Place a federal ban on importation of intoxicating liquors into dry states and authorize Congress to enact legislation, prohibiting a return of the saloon.

There was considerable discussion over the method of ratification but the legislature plans was adopted finally because it would be far less expensive than ratification by special state conventions. The two major party platforms called for the convention system but the committee decided against that method because of the expense.

SCIOTO-TP FARMER DIES OF PARALYSIS

An illness of two days caused the death of Joseph Hutchison, aged 73, Scioto-twp farmer, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ale Thompson, Saturday at 4 p. m.

He was a widower, his wife, Ada McAbee Hutchison, whom he married here Feb. 28, 1885 having passed away May 15, 1931.

Besides the daughter at whose home he died Mr. Hutchison is survived by Mrs. George Lovett of Washington-twp and Pearl of this city.

Funeral services will be Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. at Hitler cemetery chapel with Rev. S. C. Elsea officiating and interment by M. S. Rinehart.

EZRA M. CURRY, 49. DIES IN COLUMBUS

Ezra Martin Curry, aged 49, brother of Mrs. Basil Rasor, Commercial Point, died Sunday at his home in Columbus. Three daughters and a brother, Elmer Curry, also survive.

Funeral arrangements are not complete.

C. F. BELL TAKEN

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Monday at the residence in Rock Mill for C. F. Bell, aged 65, who died Saturday after a week's illness due to infected teeth. Burial will be in Amanda-twp cemetery

His widow, two daughters, three sisters and two brothers, one of whom is Isaac Bell, this city, survive.

INJURIES KILL WM. HAFEY, 87, CIVIL WAR VET

Death Comes Saturday at 9 P. M. at Home of Niece In Williamsport

FUNERAL TUESDAY

Was Last Surviving Member of Company

Injuries he suffered in an automobile collision in Williamsport New Year's Day caused the death of William Hafey, aged 87, Civil War veteran, at the home of his niece, Mrs. Charles Smiley in Williamsport, Saturday at 9 p. m.

Mr. Hafey suffered fractures of four ribs, one of which punctured his lungs; an injured hip, lacerations on the face and head and other internal injuries. His condition had been critical the entire week.

The fatal accident happened when a Ford sedan, driven by Lee Deyo, in which Mr. Hafey and Mrs. Redding of Mt. Sterling were riding, collided with a sedan driven by a Rev. Angle of Dayton, west on Federal route 22. Deyo had started to cross the highway when the Angle car struck his automobile near the rear wheel whirling the Ford around and against an electric light pole on the property of Fred Tipton, Williamsport publisher.

THROWN FROM AUTO

As the Ford stopped Mr. Hafey was thrown out of the machine. He was picked up in a semi-conscious condition and taken to the Smiley home.

Mr. Hafey, although he had lived in Mt. Sterling for the past 14 years after retiring from his farm, was well known in the county. He farmed in Monroe-twp until he retired in 1918. He was a widower his wife having been Mrs. Mary Fullen Hafey, a sister of Frank Fullen, of this city. They had no children.

The deceased was the last surviving veteran of the Company E, 155th Regiment, Ohio Volunteer Infantry. He was a member of the J. C. Bostwick post of the G. A. R. at Mt. Sterling.

Funeral services will be Tuesday at 9 a. m. at St. Joseph's church in this city with interment in Mt. Sterling cemetery by E. T. Snyder.

There are no survivors except nieces and nephews.

COOLIDGE ESTATE $250,000 IS CLAIM

Whether or Not Will Was Left Is Unknown; Friends Estimate Value.

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., Jan. 9.—Estimates of the value of the estate left by Calvin Coolidge today were set by friends at approximately $250,000.

This estimate included the $40.-000 Coolidge home here, "The Beeches," its historic trophies of the Coolidge administration, the Coolidge homestead with farmhouse and acres of woodland and pastures in Plymouth, Vt., and the investments of the late president.

The figures quoted by the Coolidge family friends were only estimates, and if Mr. Coolidge left a will none of his intimate friends know of it. Harry Ross, his confidential secretary, and Ralph W. Hemingway, ex-law partner of the former president, never heard of a will, although it was pointed out that it might have been made and placed among personal papers.

MATHEWSON FIGHTS FOR LIFE AS BRIDE IS KILLED IN CRASH

SHANGHAI, Jan. 9.— Christy Mathewson, Jr., son of the famous baseball pitcher, fought for life today after an airplane he piloted crashed at Lunghua, killing his bride of two weeks.

The tragedy occurred while the couple were still enjoying their honeymoon. Mathewson, seriously injured, is expected to live and has not been told of his wife's death.

When he was dragged from the wrecked plane by rescuers, his first words were:

"Take care of my wife."

His bride, whom he married on Christmas eve, was the former Margaret Phillips of Philadelphia.

White Urges Legislators To "Move With Caution;" Proposes Banking Board

Most Inexpensive Inaugural in Years Staged in Columbus Today

DELIVERS ADDRESS

Messages Are Planned by Governor

COLUMBUS, Jan. 9.—Governor George White entered upon his second term today with a simple inaugural at which he made a strong appeal to the legislature to strengthen Ohio's banking laws, assist the unemployed, and give relief to schools.

Saluted by 17 guns after he was sworn into office by Chief Justice Carl V. Weygandt, the governor stood before the two houses and a crowd of state dignitaries, and read a combined inaugural and legislative message exhorting the assembly to move with caution.

Otherwise, the governor warned, "unsound legislation may result."

PROPOSES BOARD

The chief executive, however, proposed the creation of a state banking board of from seven to nine members to help Ohio combat the depression.

Other recommendations contained in the governors message were:

That a system of patroling the state's highways be devised so as to afford greater protection for vehicle operators and owners and to insure rigid enforcement of motor vehicle laws.

That the power of political subdivisions to issue bonds be curbed.

That action on the proposal for an unemployment insurance law be deferred until a later session.

That, in balancing the state budget, governmental expenditures be curtailed as much as possible.

The only reference made by the governor to the prohibition question—and that indirectly—was in the following statement:

"In the enforcement of the laws which we have, or may have, the right of trial by jury, which has come down from our anglo-Saxon forbears, deeply imbedded in the tradition of our people, should be safe-guarded and preserved."

PLANS MESSAGES

Separate messages, the governor said, would be transmitted to the legislature later, dealing with recommendations affecting the statutes regulating the operation of banks and building and loan associations.

Governor White's address climaxed one of the most simple and inexpensive inaugurations in the history of the state. It was estimated that the entire ceremony would not exceed $100 in cost.

Although devoid of parades, pomp and ceremony that usually attends inaugurations, the induction was not lacking in impressiveness. The senate and the house met in joint session in the historic

MELL UNDERWOOD'S MOTHER IS CALLED

NEW LEXINGTON, Jan. 9.—Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon in the Baptist church here for Mrs. Sarah Underwood, 76, mother of Congressman Mell G. Underwood who died Sunday evening after a stroke of paralysis.

Mrs. Underwood, widow of J. G. Underwood, is survived by three other sons, Kesse of Somerset, Roy and Ralph of New Lexington and two daughters, Mrs. C. F. Harper of Columbus and D. S. Thitaker of New Lexington.

PACKER IS DEAD

Funeral services will be held Wednesday in Lancaster for Albert Bauman, 52, president of the Bauman Brothers Packing Co., of that city, who died Sunday.

130,000 Government Jobs Demanded By Democrats

Plans Being Made By Congressional Leaders To Aid 'Deserving.'

DEMANDS ARE HEAVY

Probe Hoover Civil Service Transfer.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9—Elaborate plans are being made by Congressional Democrats to open at least 130,000 government jobs to "Deserving Democrats" in the Roosevelt administration.

These plans, it was disclosed today, are designed not merely to insure the party the patronage that goes with victory but to meet the unprecedened demand for jobs caused by the economic situation.

CHARGE TRANSFER

A sweeping investigation is planned of charges that the Hoover administration has transferred many Republicans to the civil service in the last few months to save their jobs.

Some Democrats also see in the proposal to give President-Elect Roosevelt sweeping power to reorganize the government, another method of creating positions.

While the reorganization is to be undertaken for economy and efficiency, a prominent house Democrat has pointed out that 'anything can be done' by transferring bureaus and discharging employes only to later rehire others.

Minstrel's Return

LICENSE LAW FACES OUSTER

Chillicothe Council To Meet This Evening; Merchants In Arms.

Chillicothe city council, this evening, was expected to repeal its hawkers' and peddlers' license ordinance following a mammoth Chamber of Commerce meeting last Friday evening in which merchants and officials decided the ordinance hurt Chillicothe more than it aided it.

The law was enacted to force short-time merchants and peddlers, especially those hauling coal from surrounding counties and hurting local business, to buy licenses. As a result at least two surrounding counties, Jackson and Vinton organized and boycotted Chillicothe merchants until "it hurt."

A number of wholesale dealers and jobbers of the city a week ago appealed to authorities to have the law repealed.

It was unanimously voted at the Chamber of Commerce meeting to ask the council committee to repeal the ordinance.

STOLEN CAR FOUND

Sheriff Charles H. Radcliff and Deputy Bob Armstrong recovered the Chevrolet coach of Lewis Davis at the Cary Short farm near Yellowbud Sunday afternoon.

The car had been stolen Saturday night from its parking place on S. Court-st in front of the Court House.

When found the car was in good condition but all the gasoline had been exhausted.

'ROOKIE' COP CATCHES THUG

Robert Zwick Shot Down In Toledo After Shooting at Officer.

TOLEDO, Jan. 9.— Terminating a four-year search, Robert Zwick, 33, reputed "phantom gangster," was in custody of police today, following a wild gun orgy on a Toledo street during which the prisoner and a patrolman were felled with bullets.

Zwick, who is under an indictment in Cincinnati for a killing and is wanted for questioning in more than a dozen other gang slayings, was captured by Patrolman Jay MaGuire, a "rookie" policeman.

The officer was shot in the left thigh during the gun encounter, and Zwick was wounded in the jaw, cheek and arm. Four detectives who came to MaQuire's rescue were unhurt, and a woman companion of the captured fugitive escaped.

TRACED AUTO

Zwick had been sought in Toledo and vicinity for more than two months. Detective finally managed to trace an automobile believed to have been owned by Zwick and his capture came as a result of locating the machine.

Patrolman MaQuire was standing guard over the parked car when Zwick and a woman companion approached. Taking the pair into custody, the officer was marching them to a police call box when the woman handed the re-

Mrs. Coolidge's Plans For Future Vague, Say Friends

NORTHAMPTON, Mass. Jan. 9.—Friends of Mrs. Calvin Coolidge said today she has made no plans for the future.

They expect that she will visit the home of her son John and daughter-in-law in New Haven, Conn., or make a visit to the South and later take a sea trip.

With her son and daughter-in-law, Mrs Coolidge today remained in the quiet of her home, "The Beeches."

Yesterday they journeyed to the Jonathan Edwards Congregational church, where Saturday President Hoover and members of his cabinet had led the nation at funeral services for the late chief executive of the nation.

There the trio was joined by Mrs. John H. Trumbull of Plainville, Conn., mother of young Coolidge's wife. After the services they returned to "The Beeches" by auto.

Rev. Albert J. Penn, who conducted the impressive funeral service on Saturday, used the late president, used as text for his Sunday sermon the 121st Psalm.

"From the ends of the earth will I cry unto Thee when my heart is overwhelmed, lead me to the rock that is higher than I."

His simile was the mountain climber, who scales rock after peak, only to find higher peaks still luring him onward to greater heights. Thus did he picture Calvin Coolidge, although not once mentioning his name as he fought upward to the highest crag of all.

BURNING FLUID TAKES LIFE OF MRS. NOBLE, 75

Clarksburg Farm Home Scene of Fatal Accident Saturday Eve

OIL CAN TIPS OVER

Husband, Four Children Survive Aged Woman

Mrs. Charles Noble, aged 75, of near Clarksburg, Ross-co, was fatally burned Saturday night at her home following an explosion of kersone. She lived for five hours after the accident and was conscious until shortly before she succumbed at 10:30 p. m.

Mrs. Noble, widely known in the western part of Pickaway-co, had burned her finger while preparing supper and had placed the finger in a can of kerosene apparently trying to relieve the pain. While she was holding her finger in the kerosene, which was on the edge of the kitchen stove, a cat chased a mouse across the kitchen floor and Mrs. Noble reached out to try to tramp on the mouse. In doing this she tipped the can of kerosene and in the next instant was covered with the burning fluid.

OPERATOR ASSISTS

She fell to the floor. An invalid son, George, aged 30, seated in his wheel chair but unable to assist, his mother wheeled his chair to the telephone but just as he lifted the receiver, which he had to stretch to get, his chair tipped over and he was thrown on the floor. He was unable to move. Fortunately, however, the house did not catch fire.

An alert Clarksburg telephone operator observed that the phone receiver had been lifted and heard Mrs. Noble's screams. She immediately summoned help and Mr. Noble who, with a daughter had been in Clarkburg, rushed home to find Mrs. Noble sitting in a chair wrapped in bed clothing which she had placed around herself.

Dr. Cooper, of Clarksburg, was summoned and attempted to dress the burns at the home. Both face and body seared by the flames the woman passed away.

MANY RELATIVES

Mrs. Noble was a native of Vinton-co being born July 3, 1857. She was married to Charles Noble, Jan. 15, 1891. Besides the husband, four children, Mrs. Dora Crabbe of New Holland, Mrs. Walter Hughes of Clarksburg, John H. Noble of near Clarksburg and George at home, survive. Four brothers, George Speakman of Atlanta, Samuel Speakman of this city, and John and Frank Speakman of New Holland, and four sisters, Mrs. Etta Lawrence of Mt. Sterling, Mrs. Will Noble of New Holland, Mrs. Omer Ater of Clarkburg and Mrs. Roy Maughmer of New Holland besides three grandchildren, also survive.

Funeral services will be Tuesday at 2 p. m. at the Clarksburg M. E. church with interment in Brown's Chapel cemetery by C. E. Ware of Chillicothe.

MISS COURTRIGHT'S CONDITION IS GOOD

Undergoes Appendicitis Operation In Brooklyn Hospital Sunday.

Miss Peggy Courtright, daughter of Dr. D. V. Courtright, was reported on the road to recovery today after undergoing an appendicitis operation at Midwood Sanitarium, Brooklyn N. Y. Sunday morning.

A telegram received here by his sons from Dr. Courtright disclosed the daughter's condition to be good.

Dr. Courtright was notified Saturday afternoon that his daughter had suffered an attack of appendicitis and he immediately wired back to prepare her for operation. She was not operated upon until the physician reached the hospital but whether or not he performed the work was not disclosed in the telegram.

Dr. Courtright attempted to go to New York by airplane but was forced to go by train when air service was disrupted by high winds.

Miss Courtright had been visiting Mr. and Mrs. James J. Hardy in Brooklyn since Dec. 26.

MRS. RAYMOND'S FATHER CALLED

William Allen, aged 71, father of Mrs Roberta Raymond, this city, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Myrtle Rock in Valley Crossing, Saturday. Three others daughters and two sons survive.

MR. WARNER IMPROVES

Noah Warner, E. Main-st, who has been ill, is reported slowly recovering.

You Can Help Bring Back Prosperity by Buying the Things You Need and Can Afford.

Buy Now . . . for Prosperity

Are you hesitating about buying the things you need and can afford? Does timidity or fear keep you from doing a real service to the country and to the unemployment.

It is true that many people have been hard hit by the depression and are struggling to make both ends meet. We all know it is difficult for them to make purchases beyond the bare needs of existence.

There are many thousands of men and women, however, who are still receiving a fair income and who could be of tremendous help in aiding the business revival. All you need to do is to buy the things you need and can actually afford. That doesn't mean that you should buy extravagantly, wastfully or recklessly. It simply means buying what you need when you need it in a normal, natural way.

Have you been hesitating about buying because of timidity or a fear that you might be criticized? Exactly the reverse should be true. Every purchase that you make now—large or small—helps to create work and wages for those less fortunate than yourself.

When you buy a new dress or a new pair of shoes or a new radio or a new refrigerator or a new car, you help to give work and wages to people in many sections of the country. When you have the house repainted, rooms repapered or the roof fixed you directly assist other deserving workmen—perhaps in your own neighborhood. Nothing you could possibly do for those who need help could be more helpful than this. Sincere, honest, deserving people everywhere would rather have work than charity.

That's the big broad humanitarian side of it. The other side is what it means to you personally to buy the things you need and can afford to purchase now. Never were such bargains available. Never were prices so low.

Each week in this page are advertisements featuring many unusual values and services. Read about these firms, the boosters of Circleville and take advantage of the opportunities—BUY NOW FOR PROSPERITY.

Kingsmore's Team Next On Schedule Of Tigers

Marysville Armory Is To Be Scene of Encounter Friday Evening.

Marysville's experienced basketball team is next on the Red and Black schedule and will be played in the Marysville armory next Friday evening. Both Marysville and Circleville lost their first conference in the Central Buckeye league chase last Friday evening and both will be out after victory in a big way Friday.

Marysville, touted as one of the strongest teams in the league since the entire team is back from last year, started its season with the disadvantage of playing Delaware on the college-town court. Ervin Carlisle's team won.

Jerry Kingsmore at Marysville has his team built around Otte, a strong center, DeGood, forward, and McMahon, guard. Brannan is the other guard and is a good one while several athletes can be picked from for the other forward berth. The Union-co mentor can be expected to go to extreme means to win the game Saturday because two on the chin in a row would not be becoming to the chances for championship.

PRACTICE NEEDED

Coach Harberholz feels the same way about his Red and Black team. Failure to make even a fair percentage of shots last Friday lost the opening encounter to Bill Zwick's mediocre Grandview team. It must be taken into consideration that Bill Hegele, spear-head of the Tiger offense, was playing with a painful hand injury and that with vacation holding sway practice sessions were poorly attended during the week.

Strenuous and lengthy practice tilts are on the schedule for this week.

No one was more surprised over the Grandview game than was Bill Zwick, Grandview coach. Before the game he said he would be satisfied if his team made a good showing and said that Glass was the only man on his team who could hit the basket. He apparently forgot all about Wells, his center, who led Glass in scoring. We'll be surprised if Wells scores five goals in any other game this year.

BEXLEY SURPRISED

The defeat of Bexley by Westerville Friday was another surpriss insomuch as Carleton Smith, before the season opened, was credited through Columbus newspapers as declaring his team should not lose a game in the C. B. L. Bexley lost Friday and stands to lose plenty more before the schedule is completed.

Frank Ballenger, who has held on as coach at Westerville for a number of years even though his teams have lost plenty of games, appears to have a strong outfit built around Martin at center, Schick at a forward and Bale at a guard. Westerville meets Delaware this week with Grandview and Bexley tangling.

Stanford Mentor

Claude Earl "Tiny" Thornhill, who will guide the future destinies of Stanford University's football fortunes as a result of his selection to succeed Glenn S. (Pop) Warner, who recently resigned to become mentor at Temple University. Thornhill is a protege of Warner's, under whom he learned his football at the University of Pittsburgh. He was All-America tackle in 1916.

BOILERMAKERS AND WILDCATS TANGLE

CHICAGO, Jan. 9. — Four games, headed by the Purdue-Northwestern clash at Evanston, are scheduled for tonight in the Western conference basketball campaign.

Purdue, winner of the Big Ten title in 1932, faces stiff opposition in the Northwestern team although the latter took a 27-25 beating Saturday night from Illinois while Purdue opened the season with a victory over Minnesota.

Michigan meets Illinois tonight at Champaign, Ill. Chicago engages Indiana at Bloomington, Ind., and Iowa plays Wisconsin at Madison, Wis.

Purdue, Illinois, Wisconsin, Michigan and Ohio State came through Saturday night's opening games with clean records.

ASHVILLE 5 VICTORIOUS

Kauber's Team Turns Nashport Squad Aside By 39 To 17 Count.

Coach Al Kauber's Ashville varsity made short work of a visiting Nashport team Saturday night at Ashville by a 39-17 score. The Nashport team is coached by Guilford McGlone, native of Ashville.

Kauber started in the early part of the first period to pile up the score and used his entire squad before the end of the contest.

THREE GAMES ON LOOP'S SCHEDULE

Opening games in the second round of play in the Pickaway-co Independent League will get under way at Commercial Point Tuesday night with the Williams Grocers tangling up with the Walnut Tigers.

The last time the Grocers and Tigers met the Grocers handed out a decisive whipping but since then Walnut has improved and may pull a surprise.

New Holland Kirks will meet the Rovers of Columbus, in the second game. In the first tilt between the two, Shops registered a victory that was by no means impressive.

Starkey Dry Cleanears will not in all probability find the Commercial Point A. C. such easy picking as in the first round tilt when Starkey's drubbed the Commercial cagers.

With two referees on the floor this second round should be a humdinger with plenty of clean action being provided for the bucket ball followers.

Didrikson Begins On Pool Table

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Mildred (Babe) Didrikson has chosen a pool table—of all things—as the battle ground for her first competitive engagement since turning professional.

Under arrangements completed last night, the "one-woman track team" of Dallas, Texas will meet Ruth McGinnis, of Honesdale, Pa., in a 400-point pocket billiard match to be played in four blocks here Wednesday and Thursday. The National Billiard Association of America will promote the match.

BUCKEYES EYE TITLE HOLDERS

Turn Back Indiana and Now Prepare To Meet Minnesota Team..

COLUMBUS, Jan. 9—Ohio State university's basketball team openly boasted of hopes of winning the Western Conference championship today after handing Indiana a 35 to 28 trouncing Saturday.

Discarding all thoughts of rest, the Buckeyes today were to begin intensive practice at once for the next foe, Minnesota, which will play here Saturday night.

Coach Harold G. Olsen is confident that his lineup of Hinchman and Colburn at forwards. Hosket at center, and Beitner and Mattison at guards, ought to carry the Ohio State team to the top of the Big Ten standings

Beitner, as a result of the Indiana game, appears to have earned a permanent place on the team. He is a sophomore, formerly having been a star at Dover, O., high school. He scored five points against the Hoosiers.

Slow-breaking offensive work, coupled with well-timed sensational bursts, constitute the program set down for the team by Olsen. This was the style of attack used Saturday.

Indiana once threatened to defeat the Bucks. Bernard Dickey, lanky center, tied the score at 24 with eight minutes to play but Hosket and Herb Brown then broke the knot and put Ohio State farther and farther into the lead as the end approached.

BUCKEYE TEAMS WIN VICTORIES

COLUMBUS, Jan. 9.—Two Ohio State University teams started their schedules with victories during the Christmas holidays. Previous to the Indiana game won last Saturday night, the Buckeye basketball squad had won four games, losing another by a two-point margin The one loss was to Ohio Wesleyan. Victories were over Toledo, Notre Dame, Kentucky, and Vanderbilt. The next contest is with Minnesota, to be played Saturday night at the state fair grounds coliseum in Columbus. Minnesota ended last season in a tie for second place in the Western Conference.

The remainder of the Buckeye schedule calls for return games with Minnesota and Indiana; two each with Iowa, Wisconsin, Purdue, and Illinois; and single games with St. Xavier, Western Reserve and Army.

Ohio State swimmers also started during the vacation with decisive victories over Y. M. C. A. teams at Akron and Toledo. Two new pool records were set by the Buckeyes at Toledo. The Ohio State swimmers expect to compete with Cincinnati, Purdue and Illinois later in the season.

SIX HURT IN

the inmates returned from the prison workshops to their cells. Extra patrols of guards were posted immediately and the prisoners were ordered to quit work 15 minutes earlier than usual.

Confused by this action, the convicts marched quietly to the cell blocks and no trouble started until most of the men had been locked in.

A scattering of the convicts still in the corridors then turned on the guards while others hurled furniture through the windows and began a bedlam of shouting. The guards opened fire on a knot of rioters after ordering them to disperse and wounded five of the men. One guard was reported clubbed in the melee.

It was reported the convicts had complained of prison food at supper Friday and that the complaints were to be made the starting point for the outbreak.

chamber of the house of representatives for the address.

Inducted into office simultaneously were Lieut. Gov. Charles Sawyer of Cincinnati, Democrat, Secretary of State George S. Myers of Cleveland, Democrat; Attorney General John W. Bricker of Columbus, Republican; State Treasurer Harry S. Day of Fremont, Republican, and State Auditor Joseph T. Tracy of Columbus, Republican.

"New laws," the governor declared in his address, "should be confined to those necessary to meet our most pressing problems and to insure the very essentials of government with the basic principle kept in mind that expenditures must be met by a similar amount of revenue raised in such manner as not to hamper the return of economic stability.

WANTS MINIMUM

"I urge that legislation be confined to a minimum and that none be considered which, in its workings, will beneficially affect only a group, rather than the whole."

Enactment of unemployment insurance legislation at this time would be unfair due to widespread unemployment, the governor said. At the same time, he recommended the appointment of a joint legislative committee to make a "further intensive study of this whole situation" and to report its findings and recommendations at the next regular session or at a special session "if conditions justify."

"We stand appalled at the great unpreparedness of industry to meet the present grave and serious unemployment situation, growing out of the existing depression,' said the governor. "Public opinion is rightfully so aroused that it will not tolerate a recurrence of this situation in the future.

"If industry does not find a way to solve this problem in an aggressive, resourceful, widespread and constructive manner, and in which accomplishment industry has woefully failed in the past, there is no alternative but that industry will be required to meet this situation through an unemployment reserve or insurance plan as a function of government.'

The demand was made during an examination of Swope before the Bankruptcy Referee in New York.

SOLON SUICIDES

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.— A grave beside his wife in the little Lutheran churchyard at Meyersdale, Pa., today awaited Rep. Samuel A. Kendall of Somerset-co, who ended his life yesterday in his office in the house office building. Kendall's body was discovered slumped in a chair, A .38 caliber pistol in his right hand. A single shot had entered behind the right ear.

Grief over the death of his wife in August, was given as the cause for the act in a note left for his children. They are, Mrs. Grace Angus of Philadelphia, and Samuel A., Jr., and John W. Kendall. A third son died in 1913.

Effect of Higher Air

Tests made by European scientists disclose that men mountain climbers reach higher altitudes where there is les air, they find that their breathing becomes faster and their spirits rise

NORWALK, Jan. 9.—Robert Atkinson, 78-year-old recluse, today was burned to death when flames destroyed his modest home near Hartland station, east of here.

Atkinson was believed to have dropped a coal-oil lamp and the structure immediately burst into flames.

The aged man was a well-known character in Huron-co. He was reported to have hidden large sums of money and although he was rumored to have been wealthy, he lived a quiet, frugal life.

Batteries

We find since the new year came in that quite a number of car and truck owners have laid up their machines for an indefinite period, possibly without giving a thought to that magic little box under the seat or floor board. Your storage battery, the heart of the electric system dies by neglect but when properly treated it usually gives all that one would expect. Any battery in a normally discharged condition will freeze in cold weather, and therefore, in most cases you will be in the market for a new battery. On the other hand a battery which is inspected regularly, and the specific gravity reading from 1250 to 1300 you need not be alarmed for it required about 90% below zero to freeze a battery at 1300. Another harmful enemy appears when the battery is not in use and that is Sulphation. This causes the plates to harden and eventually be of no use.

Let us call for your battery TODAY and store it until you give us a ring.

Figures Reveal Finances During Regime Of White

COLUMBUS, Jan. 9.—Fanciful predictions of opponents of Governor George White in the recent campaign that his first term would end with "a deficit of $10,000,000" have been answered with cold figures. Instead of the mythical deficit, which was frequently exploded by official statements in reply to David S. Ingalls, Republican candidate, who invented it, the White administration finished the term with the state finances in good order.

Figures just compiled by Howard L. Bevis, state finance director, substantiate Governor White's assertion that his economy pledges would be fully realized. Bevis announced that cash expenditures from the state's general revenue fund in 1932 were $7,521,081.91 less than in 1931. The 1932 total was $8,673,861.27 under that of 1930, the last year of the administration of Governor Myers Y. Cooper.

QUOTES ASSETS

The state government closed 1932 with general revenue fund assets, including cash balance, taxes, assessments and accounts receivable, of $6,001,728.14. Outstanding encumbrances chargeable against the general revenue fund, exclusive of expenditures for the new state office building, totaled $2,786,297.00. With an outlay of $543,267.83 for the office building included, encumbrances totaled $3,329,564.83.

Thus the carry-over of unpaid obligations, which normally is about $3,500,000 at the end of each year, was considerably less at the close of 1932. It represents payroll charges, amounts to be paid on contracts not yet completed and other items incurred in the closing year but not yet due. The cary-over from the Cooper administration set an all-time record of $7,106,000.

REVENUES FALL

General revenue fund expenditures for the last year of the Cooper administration and the two years of the White administration were:

1930.....$39,112,975.73
1931.....$37,960,196.37
1932.....$30,439,114.46

Reductions of $7,521,081.91 in general revenue fund cash expenditures in 1932, as compared with 1931, included: Salaries, $1,-176,248.19; maintenance and subsidies $3,302,055.59; purchasing, manufacturing and rotary operations $277,412.13; additions and betterments $2,171,365.

Major savings shown in 1932, as compared with 1931, by departments directly under control of Governor White were: Governor's office and mansion $12,040.13; Finance Department $43,379.08 in salaries and maintenance and $247,448.27 in purchasing operations; Commerce Department, including all its bureaus $97,126.72; Health Department $81,193.55; Industrial Relations Department $135,723.81; Agricultural Department $123,039.24; Public Works Department $43,551.86; Prohibition Commissioner $13,044.12; Educational Department $518,271.65; Welfare Department $215,451.19 in salaries, $1,416,742.20 in maintenance, $665,880.93 in manufacturing operations and $816,027.53 in new buildings and equipment.

COLLEGES SLASHED

The state's six Universities and 585,250.94 in 1932 as compared Colleges reduced expenditures $2,-with 1931.

Highway maintenance and repair expenditures were $15,921,-707.78 in 1932 as compared with $12,021,715.83 in 1931. The increase of $3,899,991.95 in 1932 was incurred through extension of Governor White's road maintenance program to provide emergency work for the unemployed.

FINISHES SURVEY OF SCHOOL COST

COLUMBUS, Jan. 9.—A third of all governmental expenditures in Ohio goes for education, but the sum spent for all school purposes is only one-twentieth of the amount Ohioans spend in retail trade each year, according to Prof. H. H. Davis, Ohio State University department of school administration.

Dr. Davis reports that in 1930 education for all units of the state accounted for $147,964,979 of the $484,652,430 total governmental expenditures. Highways came next with $134,901,160. Total retail purchase of Ohio people for the year were $3,000,000,000.

"Not all of the $484,652,430 is paid from taxes, since a considerable amount of the expense comes from fees and various other sorts of incidental incomes," Dr. Davis points out.

Discussing the fact that the largest total expense by any one unit of government is that of school districts, Prof. Davis comments, "this is easily understood when we recall that the school district covers both city and country and that education touches the lives of so many people."

The school district is more de-

Apportioning Jobs

CONGRESS and 43 state legislatures during the public economy discussion of the next few weeks will have before them, in all likelihood, the proposal that where husband and wife both hold public jobs one should take a leave of absence or be removed for the sake of economy or to make room for a worker from a family having no income.

Advocates of sex equality are actively opposing every move to bar or remove from public jobs all married women whose husbands are employed, and the Federal Civil Service Commission is backing them up. The one is actuated only by a principle and the other by the dictates of efficiency.

Justice demands that as long as there is insufficient work to go round it should be apportioned among the greatest possible number if that can be accomplished without too great loss of efficiency. There would be no justice in dismissing a wife or husband where ther combined incomes only provide the necessaries of life. But there is real justice in closing the public trough to a family combine "eating" enough for two or three families.

The argument, sometimes cited, that the anti-married woman ruling encourages the breaking of family ties holds little water. Marriage cannot survive on greed alone, nor is anything to be gained by prolonging such a contract.

Public service theoretically involves some patriotism. The double pay envelope, with the exceptions given, is repulsive to true patriotism and real Christian unselfishness under existing economic conditions.

Eyes Upon Roosevelt

FOR two months Franklin D. Roosevelt, president-elect of the United States, will be private citizen, his term as governor of New York having expired on January 1, two months before his inauguration as president.

As private citizen No. 1 his time during those eight or nine weeks will be occupied with conferences dealing with the major problems awaiting solution by him and his Democratic congress. These conferences will largely decide the early policies of his administration, therefore they are of utmost importance and of great public interest.

On January 21 the president-elect will go to Muscle Shoals to inspect the government development there and to confer with representatives of the groups interested in that project, as well as with Senator Norris, the leading government ownership advocate in congress. Senator Norris, a Republican, supported the Roosevelt candidacy largely on the strength of the latters attitude on the water power and public utilities questions.

The next administration will favor completion of the Muscle Shoals development but whether it will propose government of private operation, or a combination of the two, will be decided on or after January 21. The decision probably will be made public in the first Roosevelt message to congress.

Neglect Is Cause of Oily Skin

Personal Hygiene and Proper Diet Aid in Clearing Disorder

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
United States Senator from New York.
Former Commissioner of Health, New York City.

"PITYRIASIS" IS the name given to the most common of all skin disorders. With it is an oily, crusted or scaly condition of the skin. This results from a disturbance in the glands of the skin.

Dr. Copeland

When the disease is confined to the scalp it produces that familiar trouble known as "dandruff". The doctors call it "seborrheic dermatitis". Dandruff may be of the dry-scaly, or the moist-greasy variety. It is frequently associated with loss of hair and possibly pronounced baldness. Some of the authorities regard baldness as the effect of an infection of the hair follicles, made possible by neglected dandruff.

A Glandular Disturbance

An annoying form of pityriasis has excessive oiliness of the skin. The forehead, cheeks and nose are the parts usually affected. The skin follicles or openings are widened and there may be an enlargement of the superficial blood vessels. In this condition the face always looks unclean, because particles of dust adhere to the skin.

The cause has never been positively determined, but, as I said, pityriasis is believed to be due to some glandular disturbance. It is more common in women than in men, and in dark complexioned individuals rather than blondes.

Lack of proper food or use of food deficient in protective vitamins, is a cause that must not be overlooked. Persons who lead sedentary lives, with little exercise, fresh air and sunlight, are prone to it. Those who are susceptible to infections frequenty suffer from this annoying skin disorder. Pityriasis is particularly common in sufferers from constipation and other digestive disturbances.

I am confident that many cases of pityriasis can be traced to the neglect of personal hygiene. The skin, particularly of the face and hands, is daily exposed to dirt and germs. It should be thoroughly washed at least twice a day with an abundance of luke warm water and soap. Negligence of this simple precaution leads to skin irritation and actual disease.

Frequent Cleansings

Please remember that the texture of the skin differs in individuals. Some skins demand frequent cleansing, while others thrive on little care. The skin that is oily will hold more particles of dust and on this account requires more thorough cleansing.

I am often asked what is the best soap to use for the skin. A soap that is pure, mild and without irritating ingredients is the soap of choice. Pure castile soap is beneficial for sensitive skins. Avoid soaps that are highly perfumed and irritating to the skin.

It must be kept in mind that skin disorders may resemble one another in appearance, but differ in cause and treatment. There are several forms of dermatitis or inflammation of the skin. Each has its peculiar needs as to treatment.

May I warn you against the unwise use of salves and patent medicines. Let your doctor examine and prescribe for you.

SYNOPSIS

Ted Wynne aspires to the higher things in life so he leaves his position in a steel mill and works his way through Old Dominion College. He succeeds creditably. Under Coach Barney Mack, Ted becomes quarterback on the Blue Comets, losing only one game during the season. His only enemy at school is Tom Stone, who considers Ted his inferior. Both boys are rivals for the love of wealthy and spoiled Barb Rush. Following a misunderstanding, Ted ignores Barb, but his thoughts are always of her even while with lovely Rosalie Downs. At the Christmas dance, Barb slights Ted. Rosalie tries to make him understand he has his ideals centered around the wrong girl. Later in the evening, Ted, for the first time, realizes how lovely Rosalie is. Days of happy companionship follow. Barb is puzzled. Back at school, Ted's thoughts return to Barb. Then he meets Betsy. They are exceptionally fond of one another, but realizing he is not in a position to be serious, Ted discontinues seeing her. In the spring, Barney lectures on football.

"Makes no difference—they can't stop me—nobody on that team."

CHAPTER XXI

"Brute has started an argument with the Trojan end who rides him out of the way and they gain four yards. What play, Elwood?"

"Try the other tackle."

"Not bad for a glee clubber, Elwood, not bad. The Trojan end on that side has just called Rastowski a bolshevik and during the discussion they make six yards over our debater. What play, Garoldi?"

"Pass."

"No good this time, Pete, because Pidgin has located his girl but sees her talking to a movie actor and he rushes up savagely and knocks the ball down; of course he might have intercepted and ran for a touchdown but he was so vicious he just wanted to knock something down. Martin?"

"Off-tackle."

"No good, Martin; our line has finished its conversation and decides to play football. We stop them with two yards in three tries and Stone departs from his ennui long enough to knock down a pass. Wynne?"

"Punt."

"Shivers punts to Wynne who returns ten yards along the sidelines to our thirty-yard line, being careful to get out of bounds at the last minute. He might have made ten more but Pat was watching the play and didn't clip the man who made the tackle. Garoldi?"

"Pass."

"We're playing football, Pete, not basketball you know, eh? All right—just so it's clear in your mind. We pass to Garoldi who misses the signal and is busy blocking the halfback while the ball rolls down the field—Wynne got it away safely just in time to avoid being thrown for a fifteen-yard loss. Stone?"

"Punt."

"Ted punts to their thirty where they put the ball in play."

The bell for one-ten class stopped the game at the end of the first period; but the next day it was resumed and Southern Cal, kicking a field goal, led at the end of the half, 3-0.

News of the "game" spread about the campus; and the grid lecture room was packed as the third quarter was played, with the score still 3-0.

Swinging into the final period, Barney found a crowd waiting outside, as well as in, and the entire school was much relieved when the Comets finally pulled it out of the fire.

"All right, two minutes to play, he's ball on their twenty-yard line, third down; our line has been stopping them cold and they're playing for time—trying to stall. What play, Wynne?"

"Is our line hot enough so that we are likely to break through and block the punt?" Ted asked.

"Maybe," Barney replied. "Big Pat is a roaring lion and the Brute is stalking about like a raging Achilles—and you should see Garoldi—the fire in his eyes as he picks out a hole between center and guard through which he is going to plow—you've plowed, haven't you, Pete?"

"Sure."

"Then we had better have them punt on third down." Ted decided.

"Why not hold the ball as long as you can?"

"If our line is hot and they wait until fourth down, the chance of a blocked punt then far outweighs any advantage they might gain by using up another thirty seconds. If they punt down the field we'll have to bring it back forty or fifty yards more than if we recovered a blocked punt."

Barney considered. "I guess you're right," he said, after a few moments. Barney had no doubt; but he was building up confidence in his quarterback - confidence which might have been shattered somewhat by the result of the crucial play in the last Army game. Barney's attitude toward his field general was always one of deferential respect.

"All right," he resumed. "Shivers punts—oh, a beauty, to Wynne who catches it on the run, near the sidelines at midfield, sidesteps the end, who came down on that side too close, and starts working toward the other side of the field but going forward all the time. Wynne is a touch guy with all that territory to work on—gives them the old sashay-hips, slips 'em, stiff-arms 'em—the old steel mill stiff-arm—and how the rest are blocking—Garoldi took that guy out like a meat axe but him—"

"Well—he's down on the sideline—out of bounds. What next, Wynne?"

"See how much time we have to play."

"Minute and a half. Quick now, Ted?"

"Sheets off left tackle."

"Four yards. Next?"

"Stone—51."

"Five yards—third and one on the four-yard line. Shoot?"

Ted turned to Garoldi. Shouted suddenly:

"Whaddye say, Pete?" Can you do it?"

"Gimmie that ball," Big Pete cried.

"Garoldi on 37," Ted told Barney.

"Big Pete dives over—oh, what a drive—for two yards. First down on the two-yard line. Time for two plays. Quick, Ted."

"I'll do it in one," Big Pete cried, eyes flaming, on his feet.

"Careful, Pete—you're tipping off the play," Barney warned.

"Makes no difference—they can't stop me—nobody on that team."

"83-74-66——" Ted called

"There goes Big Pete," Barney cried. "oh, what a dive—he's over, wait—the referee is looking for the ball—touchdown."

"Touchdown," the cry was passed outside; circulated through classes all over the campus that afternoon.

The squad gathered around Big Pete, congratulating him, giving him a gentle pushing around by the New Dominion practice of mauling—which simply meant that everybody agreed with a chap who thought he was good.

Big Pete loved it. His shoulders twitched and his chest was out further than usual.

"Never saw such a dive," Pat said lazily. "I could feel the wind from him as he went over my head."

"Cut it out," Big Pete said—but he loved it.

In his office Barney had his feet perched high, cigar tilted perpendicularly and his hat on one ear. Real wrinkles of satisfaction in his handsome phiz.

"Had 'em hot, didn't I," he commented to Spike Parker, the student correspondent. "Good psychology, Spike—couldn't let 'em cool. And don't forget that Big Pete made the touchdown in his head; he's all-American stuff now and that's just what he needs; he's the kind of kid who needs blowing up."

THE MOVIES

AT THE GRAND

Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell together are always the best possible bets for an evening's entertainment, but when they are given material in keeping with their talents, they become the brightest stars that shine.

This was forcefully and delightfully borne out at the Grand Theatre yesterday where their new Fox comedy drama, "The First Year," had its premier local showing. Frank Craven's well-known stage success proved to be the strongest vehicle Janet and Charlie have had since "7th Heaven," if not for all time.

Both Janet and Charlie are seen as young moderns, with up-to-the-minute frocks that will arouse admiration in the heart of every woman. As the hero, Charlie, in the role Craven originally wrote for himself and sometimes considered the strongest part in the show, is given more of an opportunity, as far as the plot is concerned, than is usually his when playing opposite Janet.

AT THE CLIFTONA

Joan Crawford, the 1932 Sadie Thompson of "Rain," which comes to the Cliftona Theatre today and tomorrow first saw the light of day in San Antonia. She was born in the atmosphere of the theater, for her father operated a chain of playhouses in the Southwest.

When Joan was six months old the family moved to Lawton, Okla., where she spent her childhood. Joan learned to dance almost as soon as she was able to walk. She also displayed talent on the piano.

When she was seven the family moved to Kansas City, Mo., where the future star was placed in a convent, and a year later she was placed in a private school. It was during her school days in Kansas City that she won her first prize for dancing in public. She later was to acquire a roomful of silver cups for her exceptional talent.

Joan went on the stage at the age of sixteen, in the chorus of a musical show playing middle-western cities. But the show soon closed, and she landed a job in a revue at a Chicago cafe. Other cafe engagements followed, and in Detroit one of the Shuberts saw her dance and offered her a role in the chorus of "Innocent Eyes," which was being tried out before opening in New York.

She augmented her income on Broadway by singing in Harry Richman's supper club after the evening performances at the theater. Film executives, attracted by her talents and personality, arranged a screen test and offered her a contract in Hollywood.

During her early career in the film capital she played small parts, then won a fairly important role in a Jackie Coogan picture, "Old Clothes." The role of the dancer in "Sally, Irene and Mary" skyrocketed her to stardom.

"Our Dancing Daughters" won her stardom.

Other pictures in which she has played stellar roles include "Our Modern Maidens," "Untamed," "Montana Moon," "Our Blushing Brides," "Paid," "Dance Fools, Dance," "Laughing Sinners," "This Modern Age," "Possessed," "Grand Hotel" and "Letty Lynton."

$603 FARM INCOME FOR 1372 FARMERS

Highest Average Source of Cash Was Dairy Products Figures Show.

About 1300 Ohio farmers who keep records of their business made an average farm income of $603 in 1931, according to rural economists for the agricultural extension service at the Ohio State University.

These farmers, the economists say, lived in about 75 Ohio counties and cooperated with the college of agriculture in keeping their accounts and in having them summarized at a series of 124 meetings held throughout the state especially for that purpose.

The average size of the farms was 143 acres. The source of cash income were distributed as follows: dairy products, $718; hogs, $440; poultry, $355; sheep, $88; cattle, steers, $77; crops, $418; and all other sources were responsible for $213. The total cash receipts amounted to $2314 for the average farmer keeping accounts.

The sources of cash expenses were feed, $284; taxes, $318; labor, $152; fertilizer, $83; and all other items, $557.

Information gained from the farm account records, according to the economists, are presented in various ways to groups of farmers, county agricultural agents and groups of vocational agricultural teachers. In this way the data are used in helping hundreds of individual farmers who do not keep records of their businesses.

Boy Scout News

TROOP 107

The troop went on a 16-mile hike Thursday. Most of the boys passed some of the second class and first class tests.

We held our regular meeting Friday evening. We are making great progress on our achievement roundup for the scout circus. Our newest members are James Moffit Jr., Laddie Goeller and Richard Weldon.

We did civic service work Saturday at the Methodist church.
